

ALR Exclusion Application Table 1

Regional District	Approach	Alternative Approach	Cost Recovery	Average ALR Exclusion Application(s) per year
Regional District of Bulkley-Nechako	Case-by-case approach to ALR Exclusion applications due to limited number of cases.	Not enough Applications to approach through OCP amendments.	To be determined.	±1-2
Cariboo Regional District	Currently drafting policy to permit landowner requests for ALR-EX to be earmarked for future long-term planning exercises. This will consider ALC boundaries from long-range, community wide assessment through Official Community Plan amendments.	N/A	To be determined.	±1
Fraser-Fort George Regional District	Board of Directors brought forth a recommendation for staff to prepare policy that allows the Regional Board to consider applications on a case-by-case basis.	Policy being drafted.	Move all costs to the applicant through the amendment of existing policy.	±1
Thompson-Nicola Regional District	Take the application to their "Agricultural Advisory Committee". So few that they will not create bylaws.	Likely to handle on a case-by-case basis.	Have not made any decision regarding cost recovery.	±1

Table 1. Overview of current approaches taken by Regional Districts for ALR Exclusion applications